

Volunteer Announcement

Casa Cristo Rey

Guadalajara, Mexico

Position: Long-term volunteer for Casa Cristo Rey of the FSSP in Guadalajara, Mexico beginning late August or early September, 2017

Description: Our volunteers participate in the many varied activities of the apostolate and help us with the day to day duties in the parish and in the house. Volunteers have the opportunity to help with catechism, acolyte training, charitable works in orphanages and hospitals, help in street evangelization, and various other projects necessary for the development of Casa Cristo Rey. Volunteers will have opportunities to take Spanish lessons with the same teachers who provide instruction for the St. Junipero Serra Spanish Institute for seminarians. They live the liturgical life of the apostolate, immerse themselves in the culture and language, and have an invaluable experience that will profoundly change their lives.

Ideal for young men discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

Requirements: Male, at least 20 years old. Practicing Catholic associated with an apostolate of the FSSP.

Term: Preferably 10-12 months, renewable

Application

Requirements: Send inquiry to FSSPGuadalajara@gmail.com. Submit two letter of recommendation, one of which should be from your pastor. Schedule skype interview with Fr. Heenan.

Questions can be directed to Fr. Heenan at FSSPGuadalajara@gmail.com
